The cut-up technique (or découpage in French) is an aleatory literary technique in which a written text is cut up and rearranged to create a new text. The concept can be traced to at least the Dadaists of the 1920s, but was popularized in the late 1950s and early 1960s by writer William S. Burroughs, and has since been used in a wide variety of contexts.

Narrative exposition is the insertion of important background information within a story; for example, information about the setting, characters' backstories, prior plot events, historical context, etc. In a specifically literary context, exposition appears in the form of expository writing embedded within the narrative. Exposition is one of four rhetorical modes (also known as modes of ...

Propre de l'homme. La technique s'est développée avec l'humanité et fait partie d'elle. Elle constitue d'abord pour l'homme un instrument de maîtrise car elle le libère d'un certain nombre de contraintes naturelles : l'outil a pour vocation première d'être utile. Mais avec le temps, la technique est également vue comme un instrument de puissance, voire de pouvoir.
