the selections people made. Second, they would try to understand why people selected the features they did. How did they determine what their ideal characteristics should be? The explanations would be numerous, but one of them would probably include the significance of race. Race is a funny thing. We see racial

CHAPTER NINE Race and Ethnicity - Sociology

Racial and ethnic labels are especially powerful because they are shorthand for emotionally-laden stereotypes. Symbolic interactionists stress that we learn our prejudices in interactions with others. These stereotypes not only justify prejudice and discrimination, but they also lead to a self-fulfilling prophecyâ€”stereotypical
