A trading room gathers traders operating on financial markets. The trading room is also often called the front office. The terms "dealing room" and "trading floor" are also used, the latter being inspired from that of an open outcry stock exchange. As open outcry is gradually replaced by electronic trading, the trading room gets the only living place that is emblematic of the financial market.

MysteriousFool writes... I looked around and someone recommended to invest in Exchange traded funds. What do you think. I'm not entirely sure why you'd want to invest solely into (emerging market/global) ETF's, especially considering that Australian equities have one of the best risk/return performances and Australia has one of the highest interest rates available.
